

Digital Single Market

Policy and legislation 17/11/2010

Dial 116 000: The European hotline for missing children

The purpose of this Communication is twofold. On the one hand, the Commission renews its call on the Member States to implement the missing children hotline as a matter of priority. On the other hand, the Commission intends to ensure that the same high quality of service is offered throughout the Union.

Share this page

Source URL: <https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/news/dial-116-000-european-hotline-missing-children>