

Digital Single Market

News Article 01/06/2015

116 in the Czech Republic

In the Czech Republic, four of the five 116 numbers are currently operational

116000 - Missing Children Hotline ^[1]

116123 - Emotional Support Helpline ^[2]

Both helplines are operated by Ztracené dítě o.s. ^[3] - the Czech organisation for Missing Children.

116006 - Victims of Crime Helpline

Operational since January 2015, the helpline is operated by Bílý kruh bezpečí ^[4].

116111 - Child Helplines

The helpline is operated by Sdružení Linka bezpečí ^[5] - the Safety Line Association

Promotion

The Czech Telecommunication Office, CTU, published on its website ^[6] information about the allocation and launching of the 116 numbers. 116 is one of the topics included in the presentations aimed at the seniors. CTU is also planning to prepare a leaflet for children in school.

Share this page

Source URL: <https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/news/116-czech-republic>

Links

[1] <http://www.ztracenedite.cz/116-000/>

[2] <http://www.ztracenedite.cz/116-123/>

[3] <http://www.ztracene-deti.cz/>

[4] <http://www.bkb.cz/>

[5] <http://www.linkabezpeci.cz/webmagazine/kategorie.asp?idk=306>

[6] <http://www.ctu.eu/main.php?pageid=311>