

Digital Single Market

Reports and studies 13 June 2013

Analysis of measures that could lead significant market players in the ICT sector to license interoperability information - COMMISSION STAFF WORKING DOCUMENT

This document reports on the investigation performed in the framework of the Digital Agenda for Europe, more specifically on measures that could lead significant market players to license interoperability information in the absence of standards.

It summarises the results of our investigations and the consultation of stakeholders. As such, it is not a policy document of the Commission.

Share this page

Source URL: <https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/news/analysis-measures-could-lead-significant-market-players-ict-sector-license-interoperability>