

Digital Single Market

Press releases13/06/2013

Commission queries Estonian regulator's costing methodology for broadband infrastructure

The European Commission has suspended a proposal from the Estonian telecoms regulator (ECA) for calculating regulated fees which the dominant operator, Elion Ettevoted AS, can charge other operators to use its broadband infrastructure. The Commission is concerned that ECA's approach may not be compatible with EU telecoms rules, could hamper investment in broadband and could also create artificial barriers in the market.

Read full text ^[1]

Share this page

Source URL: <https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/news/commission-queries-estonian-regulator%E2%80%99s-costing-methodology-broadband-infrastructure>

Links

[1] http://europa.eu/rapid/press-release_IP-13-539_en.htm