

Digital Single Market

News article 2 July 2013

Vilnius [LT] is now committed to use ICT in the fight against climate change

On the first day of the Lithuanian Presidency of the EU, at 12:00, Mr Artūras Zuokas, Mayor of Vilnius, Lithuania, signed both the Covenant of Mayors and the Green Digital Charter, in Brussels.

[1]

On the Commission side, the event was attended by Jan Panek, Head of Unit (DG ENER), 2nd from left; Colette Maloney, Head of Unit (DG CONNECT), 4th from right; and Mercè Griera-i-Fisa (DG CONNECT), 1st from right.

Vilnius is now committed to use ICT in the fight against climate change, together with 36 other European cities that have signed the Charter.

Share this page

Source URL: <https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/news/vilnius-lt-now-committed-use-ict-fight-against-climate-change>

Links

[1] https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/sites/digital-agenda/files/newsroom/mayor_ec_eurocities_v2_4578.jpg