

Digital Single Market

Feasibility Study on an Electronic Identification, Authentication and Signature Policy (IAS)

Reports and studies19/09/2013

The purpose of this project is to study the feasibility of a comprehensive EU legal framework that would apply to all electronic credentials needed to secure electronic transactions as well as the ancillary services needed to use them: electronic identification, authentication, signature, seals, certified delivery and a voluntary official email address.

Share this page

Source URL: <https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/news/feasibility-study-electronic-identification-authentication-and-signature-policy-ias-0>