

Digital Single Market

Report / Study 20 November 2013

ENISA - Detect, SHARE, Protection: Improving Threat Data Exchange among CERTs

This report from the EU Agency ENISA describes how to make data threat exchange easier and better between the “digital fire brigades” (i.e. Computer Emergency Response Teams (CERT)s.) The Agency concludes that improving information sharing must build on existing solutions and standardisation efforts in data exchange formats, so as to make them interoperable.

Read full text [1]

Contact

[2]

Share this page

Source URL: <https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/news/enisa-detect-share-protection-improving-threat-data-exchange-among-certs>

Links

[1] <https://www.enisa.europa.eu/activities/cert/support/data-sharing>

[2] <mailto:>