EC-CEPT workshop on the EU policy objectives in the World Radiocommunication Conference 2015

Reports and studies10/12/2013

In this morning workshop [1] hosted by the European Commission and the CEPT, the collaborative body of European administrations responsible for spectrum, the intention is to present the work done so far in developing positions in the CEPT and receive input from stakeholders. In the afternoon, the Commission and the aviation community will hold a seminar to discuss present and future needs [2] of that industry. The agenda for both events can be found here [3].
