Free Webinar: How to benefit from up to 25k€ and test your experiments and applications on different testbeds

Events24/02/2014

Join the webinar and benefit from a specific information session on how to access funding opportunities (up to 25k€) and use existing testbeds for the development of your products and applications!

Fed4FIRE has just launched its 1st Open Call ^[1] specifically targeting SMEs using a simplified and faster application and review process. The major objective of this Open SME Call 1 is to make the federated infrastructure easier and more directly available for execution of innovative experiments by experimenters at SMEs.

Come and join our free webinar, with FED4FIRE coordinators that will take place on Monday 24th of february 2014 at 01:00 pm CET.
