

Home > Smart walker for the elderly developed by DALI project

Digital Single Market

Audiovisual05/03/2014

Smart walker for the elderly developed by DALI project

The Dali project has developed a portable motion planning device for crowded environments, to help reduce the stress of a user with impaired ability. The device takes the responsibility of finding the best course of action in the local environment, freeing the user to focus on more important things, such as the physical effort of moving.

[1]

Read more

Website of the Dali project [2]

Share this page

Source URL: <https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/news/smart-walker-elderly-developed-dali-project>

Links

[1] https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/sites/digital-agenda/files/newsroom/cwalker-4_6338.jpg

[2] <http://www.ict-dali.eu>