Watch online the Smart Systems Integration Brokerage Event

A Brokerage Event on the occasion of the first call for proposals under Horizon 2020 in the area of Smart Systems Integration will take place in Brussels on 11 March 2014.

The event will have three parts. At first, we will provide call related information, addressing the innovation focus, the funding instruments and the evaluation process. Then the floor will be open for participants to make 5-minute individual presentations, offering or looking for complementary expertise or presenting proposal ideas. The concluding networking session will be an opportunity for interaction and discussions.

If interested, you can join the discussion group online ^[1], ask questions and find the agenda and other related documents.

The event is also broadcasted online ^[2] between 10:00 and 16:00 on 11 March 2014.

You can also get updates on Twitter. Check #ssibrokerage for following this event and join our account on @Electronics_EU.
