

Digital Single Market

Projects news and results23/06/2014

I-stay@home project publishes catalogue of assistive ICT technology

After thorough research in 2012-13 identifying assistive ICT technology throughout Europe, the I-stay@home product catalogue is now available to the public. Over 100 suppliers have filled out an extensive request for information. Evaluation results will follow later in the project. The project has received European Regional Development Funding through INTERREG IV B.

Read more

Project website [1]

Read full text [2]

Share this page

Source URL: <https://ec.europa.eu/digital-single-market/en/news/i-stayhome-project-publishes-catalogue-assistive-ict-technology>

Links

[1] <http://www.i-stay-home.eu/en/home>

[2] <http://wiki.i-stay-home.eu/>