

EU-Greenland Workshop on Raw Materials

June 19, 2015 Hotel Bloom
Rue Royale 250, 1210 Brussels - Belgium

Agenda

- |       |   |
|-------|---|
| 09.00 | Registration and coffee   |
| 09.30 | Opening speechBy the Government of Greenland and the European Commission   |
| 10.00 | The raw materials potential of GreenlandBy Henrik Stendal, Chief Geologist and responsible for the marketing of Mineral Resources, Greenland Ministry of Mineral Resources |
| 10.30 | The study EU needs with regard to co-operation with Greenland on raw materialsBy the European Commission's contractors Milieu and Geus                                     |
| 11.10 | Greenland and the EU Critical Raw MaterialsBy the European Commission's contractor Oeko Institut   |
| 11.30 | Coffee break  |
| 11.45 | Project proposition concerning acquisition of aeromagnetic data in GreenlandBy Henrik Stendal, Chief Geologist, Greenland Ministry of Mineral Resources                    |
| 12.15 | The Kimberly process: a success storyBy the European Commission  |
| 12.45 | Lunch break   |
| 13.45 | The mining and management of radioactive oresBy Julian Hilton, Aleff Group   |
| 14.15 | A Strategy for growth based on natural resourcesBy Peter Beck, Greenland Ministry of Finance   |

- 14.45      Maximising the benefits, and minimising the negative impacts, of mining projects for society
by Malika Moussaid, Aleff Group
- 15.10      Doing business in Greenland
By Thomas Mogensen, Greenland Business Association
- 15.35      The Kvanefjeld project: an overview and the experience of operating in Greenland
By Dr John Mair, Managing Director, Greenland Minerals and Energy
- 16.00      Open discussion
The floor will be open for all participants to share their views
- 16.20      Summary and outlook
By the Government of Greenland and the European Commission
- 16.30      End of the workshop