Preparation Technical Report "Alternative (non-animal) Methods for Cosmetics Testing: Current Status and Future Prospects - 2010"

In view of the upcoming 2013 deadline for the marketing ban, the Commission will report to the European Parliament and the Council on the availability of alternatives by 2013. In order to prepare this report and to gain a broad and objective picture of the situation the Commission requested a technical report from an expert panel and submitted the draft report to a public consultation.
