Description : BYZANTINE ROUTES The objective of the project focuses on cultural and artistic insight stimulated by Byzantine historical facts, traditions, arts, literature, Architecture inspired by Mystras, a World Heritage monument of UNESCO. Greek coordinator: MUNICIPALITY OF SPARTA in collaboration with the INTERCULTURAL EURO MEDITERRANEAN CENTER for UNESCO and the scientific support of the INSTITUTE of TECHNOLOGY of PEIRAEUS (TEI PEIRAEUS) have designed an umbrella of activities of strong intercultural character, intending to turn the limelight at the wonderful European sites, such as castles, theatres, churches, works of Art, and towards all points that bear a special role in Byzantine History .An itinerary aiming to promote Knowledge and tourism. The BYZANTINE ROUTES project can prove to be a communication channel of creative collaboration of European cultural workers, developing synergies on intercultural dialogue based on Byzantine legacy. Through a package of diverse cultural activities that attract publicity and encourage the development and participation of active European citizens, the project will promote and highlight the unique but presently rather underdeveloped Byzantine heritage. By linking a range of countries in a common past of valuable cultural heritage, it can become an essential source and tool for further exploration of the European cultural identity and continuity, strengthening cross cultural relations.
