Cooperativa Centro Servizi Foligno Via dei Mille 27/b 06034 Foligno – Umbria Italy	Mrs Geraldine Maiorca geraldine.maiorca@gmail.com
Description : The cooperative was founded in 1997. The aim of our organization is to promote the accessible tourism in the Umbria region in Italy. We made the first regional web portal on this topic in 2007. The cooperative has a 10 years experience in this field, and has published an accessible guide for the municipalities of Assisi, Perugia and Foligno. We develop the local touristic offer from the accessibility point of view, through a detailed information about all the products and services offered, to give the opportunity to tourists to make the best choices for their special needs. We are going to open a Tour operator with those targets: senior and disable people. The purpose is to realize touristic packages able to provide suitable services to tourist with special need . The client with special needs is not different from the other one, but requires behavioral models and the adoption of logistic measures that generally increase the comfort for all. The cooperative is intended to join the project as a partner.

Description :

Our business is offering high quality accommodation services in Campi Flegrei.

Campi Flegrei has had strategical and cultural importance. The area was known to the Greeks, who had a colony nearby at Cumae. The beach of Miliscola, in Bacoli, was the Roman military academy headquarters. Lake Avernus was believed to be the entrance to the underworld, and is portrayed as such in the Aeneid of Virgil. Cumae was the first Greek colony on the mainland of Italy (Magna Graecia) and is perhaps most famous as the seat of the Cumaeen Sibyl. Baiae, now lying underwater, was a fashionable coastal resort and was the site of summer villas of Julius Caesar, Nero, and Hadrian (who died there). A Flavian Amphitheatre (Amphitheatrum Flavium), the third largest Italian amphitheater after the Colosseum and the Capuan Amphitheatre. Europe's youngest mountain, Monte Nuovo is here. The WWF oasis lies beside the enormous Astroni crater. The tombs of Agrippina the Elder and Scipio Africanus are here as well. At Baiae, a Bacoli district the most ancient hot spring complex was built for the richest Romans.
