Gruppo di Volontariato Civile (GVC) - Community Protection Approach (CPA) Handbook

Gruppo di Volontariato Civile (GVC) has developed within the context of the EU Aid Volunteers the Community Protection Approach (CPA) Handbook.

The Community Protection Approach (CPA) Handbook is a guide to understanding the research methodology used for its design and development. It aims to set out the general logic of the CPA in order to identify its application opportunities in different contexts. It targets both the specialized and general audience by using non-technical terminology as far as possible. CPA website
Evite – Viva Volunteering Event in Brussels

On 25/04/2019, ACTED, Concern Worldwide and People in Need organised in the Prague House in Brussels the event Viva Volunteering within the One World Film Festival.

Malwina, Eric and Caterine contributed to the session dedicated to the volunteering opportunities the EU offers to young citizens.

Story from the field

Linda was sent by ADICE to the local NGO WEFOCO in Kenya as an EU Aid Volunteer in Community-based development.

WEFOCO is working with several women groups registered in Shianda on strengthening their skills and abilities in income-generating activities.

“...one of my initiatives was to provide trainings on simple record keeping which were based on examples the groups are familiar with. It was a really nice experience to witness how enthusiastic the members were about sharing their own examples and what they are planning to do with their profit as a group as well as individuals…”
