14:00 – 14:45 Room Alcide de Gasperi	Panel 1: Making electronic health record systems interoperable across borders Several EIP on AHA partners have confirmed that they are implementing national digital health portals and electronic health record (EHR) systems that are / will be made accessible to citizens and health care professionals. These systems are not interoperable across borders and therefore users and professionals cannot use them when receiving health and care services across borders. This panel will discuss the benefits for users (citizens, informal carers and professionals), health care authorities and research organisations of having interoperable systems that allow secure cross-border access to personal health data. Chair: Anne-Sophie Parent, AGE Platform Panellists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Ana M. Carriazo, Regional Ministry of Health of Andalucía (Spain) - Henrique Martins, Serviços Partilhados Ministério da Saude (Portugal) - Edwin Morley-Fletcher, Lynkeus srl, My Health My Data - Nick Guldemond, Erasmus University (Netherlands) Discussion/Q&A
14:45 – 15:30 Room Alcide de Gasperi	Panel 2: Speeding up data-enabled research and personalised medicine in active and healthy ageing Data-driven research and innovation in active and healthy ageing solutions remains fragmented, with large data sets locked-in in regions or research organisations, with computing and data analytics capacity accessible only to a limited number of research organisations. Can these data-sets, expertise and computing capacity be connected (securely) across the EU, respecting the highest privacy and ethical standards, to accelerate data-enabled research and personalised medicine in active and healthy ageing? Chair: Sally Lewis, Welsh Government (Wales, UK) Panellists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Denis Horgan, European Association of Personalised Medicine - Carina Dantas, Caritas Coimbra (Portugal) - Toni Dedeu, AQUAS (Cataluña, Spain) Discussion/Q&A
