Strategic thinking: building a research and innovation led Bioeconomy

The conference will focus on opportunities in the bioeconomy. Presenters from the EU-15 Member States will share their experiences on the importance of developing the economy in the direction of the bioeconomy, while Hungarian best practices in the field of research- and innovation-based cooperation for the bioeconomy will be presented.

The conference will be held on 21 September 2017, as part of the National Agriculture and Food Exhibition and Fair (OMÉK) in Hungary. Participation at the conference is free of charge, but requires registration. For registration check here. You can find more information also on the website of the Hungarian EIP AGRI network.
