

Baden-Württemberg

MINISTERIUM FÜR LÄNDLICHEN RAUM
UND VERBRAUCHERSCHUTZ

Program
of the workshop
(Subject to change)

"Creating value-added-chains:
Non genetically modified (GMO-free) soya in the Danube region"

in the framework of the 4. Annual Forum in Ulm

Venue: Handwerkskammer Ulm

Olgastraße 72, 89073 Ulm

Conference languages are German and English

1. Thursday 29. October 2015

- Moderation: Klaus Mastel; Agricultural Technology Centre Augustenberg (LTZ), (Baden-Württemberg)
- from 8.30 Arrival and Registration of the Participants
- 9.30 Welcome and Introduction
Wolfgang Reimer; The Permanent Secretary Ministry of Rural Affairs and Consumer Protection Baden-Württemberg
- 9.45 Greeting

Danilo Golubovic; Ministry for Agriculture, Forestry and Water Management of the Republic Serbia (requested)

Zsolt Feldmann; State Secretary of the Ministry of Agriculture, Hungary (requested)
- 10.10 Why South Germany needs regional and European Soya for its pig production!
Jürgen Mäder; EDEKA Südwest
- 10.30 The Concept "Danube-Soya" – Overview of the Status of Implementation
Matthias Krön; Danube Soya Association
- 10.45 Promotion of Cultivation of GMO-free Soya in the Danube Region through the German Government
Rosemarie Metz; Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit

- 11.00 Coffee Break
- 11.20 Chances, Role and Potential of a Regional Grain Legume Production in Baden-Württemberg
Dr. Joachim Raupp; LTZ Augustenberg
- 11.40 Concepts in the Danube Region
- Baden-Württemberg:
- Regional Protein – Soya Beans from the Region
Bernhard Stoll, Raiffeisenkraftfutterwerk Kehl
- How does contract farming in Kraichgau and a Cooperation with other Danube Regions fit together?!
- Siegmar Benz, Kraichgau Raiffeisen Zentrum, Eppingen (approx. 11.55)*
- Production and Cooperation in Serbia
N.N. (approx. 12.10)
- Back to the Field: The Contribution of Farmers to the European Protein Supply
Ilija Mikulic, Seges (approx. 12.25)
- 12.40 Lunch Break
- 14.00 Danube Soya: from the Source of the Danube to the Danube Delta – Organization, Brand and Product Safety
Ursula Bittner/Dagmar Gollan, Verein Donau Soja
- 14.20 Concepts for a Regional Protein Supply and Processing
- There Exists and There is the Need for Organic Protein Starting from the Source to the Danube Delta Rudolf Bühler; Board BESH w.V.
- Innovative Concepts of Soya Processing on and for the Farm
Bernhard Monschein; MH Agrarhandel GmbH Fehring (approx. 14.35)
- The Role of the Archer Daniels Midland Company (ADM) in the Soya Supply of Germany
René E. van der Poel, ADM Straubing (approx. 14.50)
- Contract Farming between Farmer and Food Processing in Austria, an Experience Report
Manfred Hirschhofer; Hirschhofer GmbH & CoKG Pöttersdorf (approx. 15.05)
- 15.30 Coffee Break
- 16.00 Efficient and sustainable agricultural systems for European Soya Production
Piero Ciriani, Soia Italia

- 16.15 The Value of Regional Soya
1. Activities for Market Transparency in Baden-Württemberg
Werner Schmid; LEL Schwäbisch Gmünd
 2. Activities for Market Transparency of the Danube Soya Association
Stephan Dorfmeister; Danube Soya Association
- 16.45 Panel Discussion with Participation of the Plenary
Yes we can! – Perspectives for the European Soya Production – a Chance for more added value for our agriculture

Ending at about 18.00

Presentations in the Foyer of the Handwerkskammer Ulm

Opportunity to participate in the official evening program of the 4. Annual Forums on the 29th of October – Reception of the Prime Minister of Baden-Württemberg Mr. Winfried Kretschmann – only with separate registration for the 4. Annual Forum (danube-forum-uhl.eu) possible.

2. Friday 30. October 2015 - Excursion

Excursion to the region Hohenlohe to BESH – added value chain with GMO-free feed from the fattening to the consumer (subject to change)

- 8.30 Departure Ulm
- 8.45 Ulm-Lehr E-Center – Meat and Sausage Marketing of EDEKA-Südwest GmbH
- 10.15 Visit of a Member-Company of the Farmers Association Swabian Hall (BESH)
- 11.30 Schwäbisch Hall-Hessental – Presentation of BESH
Visit of the Slaughterhouse and the Processing Facility
- 13.00 Wolpertshausen
- Visit of the BESH-Regional Market with refreshment
- 14.00 Return to Ulm (expected arrival in Ulm approx. 16.00)

Organization: The event is jointly organized by the Ministry for Rural Development and Consumer Protection (MLR) and the Danube Soya Association.

