Article 5

This Decision is addressed to the Member States.

Done at Brussels, 26 July 1999.

For the Commission
Christos PAPOUTSIS
Member of the Commission
ANNEX

Definition of information to be transmitted by the Member States to the Commission of the Communities:
1. Monthly crude oil supply cost (cif);
2. Consumer prices of petroleum products inclusive of duties and taxes and net of duties and taxes in force on the 15th of each month;
3. Prices of petroleum products net of duties and taxes in force each Monday.

Definition of the monthly crude oil supply cost (cif)

Lines 1 and 2 concern the entire total supply in the month concerned.

'Supply cost' means the cost of crude oil imports, deliveries from other Member States and crude oil produced in the Member State.

'Imports' means all crude oil entering the Community for purposes other than transit and intended to cover the needs of a Member State.

'Deliveries' means all crude oil entering the territory of a Member State from another Member State for purposes other than transit and intended to cover the needs of the Member State.

'Crude oil produced in the Member State' means the oil produced and refined in the Member State concerned, whose production is more than 15% of its annual crude oil supply.

Average cif cost means the weighted average monthly cost of the entire crude oil supply. The cif price includes the fob price (the price actually invoiced at the port of loading), the cost of transport, insurance and certain charges linked to crude oil transfer operations. The import value of the crude oil produced in a Member State is to be calculated free at port of discharge or free at frontier, i.e. at the moment when the crude oil falls under the customs jurisdiction of the importing country.

The average cif cost is to be communicated in dollars by the Member States.

The Member States should forward Table 1 to the Commission within a period of one month from the end of the month concerned.

The information forwarded will be published by the Commission in the Oil Bulletin in dollars and in euros. The monthly rate for the euro vis-à-vis the dollar will be established in accordance with the official market exchange rate (1).

Definition of consumer prices of petroleum products in force on the 15th of each month

Each of lines 1 to 7 inclusive is for information on the consumer prices of petroleum products for certain categories of consumer on a particular date.

'Prices for certain categories of consumer' means:
— Pump prices in the case of fuels for road transport purposes;

(1) Published in the Official Journal of the European Communities, C series.
— Delivered prices to small consumers, i.e. for deliveries of 2 000 to 5 000 litres in the case of fuel for domestic heating purposes (heating gas oil); for offtakes of less than 2 000 litres the industrial sector may be taken into consideration;
— Delivered consumer prices for offtakes of less than 2 000 tonnes per month or less than 24 000 tonnes per year in the case of industrial fuels.

Real prices means the true consumer prices in force on the 15th of each month:
— Average real price for each of the products in lines 1 to 7 inclusive means the price most frequently charged, i.e. the weighted average of the series of prices inclusive of and net of duties and taxes.

The information forwarded will be published in the Oil Bulletin in national currencies and in euros.

The euro exchange rates taken into consideration will be those established on 31 December 1998 in the case of euro zone countries; in the case of the other States the rates will be those published on the 15th of the month by the European Central Bank.

Definition of prices net of duties and taxes in force each Monday

Member States will communicate to the Commission no later than midday on Tuesday information concerning the prices of petroleum products net of duties and taxes in force each Monday.

'Petroleum products' means:

Motor fuels
- premium leaded petrol
- Euro super 95
- automotive gas oil
- LPG

Domestic heating fuel:
- heating gas oil

Industrial fuels:
- fuel oil with a sulphur content over 1 %
- fuel oil with a sulphur content equal to or less than 1 %.

'Prices for certain categories of consumer' means:

- pump prices per 1 000 litres in the case of fuels for road transport purposes;
- delivered consumer prices per 1 000 litres in the case of fuel for domestic heating purposes (heating gas oil), i.e. for deliveries of 2 000 to 5 000 litres; for offtakes of less than 2 000 litres the industrial sector may be taken into consideration;
- delivered consumer prices for offtakes of less than 2 000 tonnes per month or less than 24 000 tonnes per year in the case of industrial fuels.

The prices net of duties and taxes communicated by the Member States are the prices most frequently charged, based on a weighted average. In Member States in which large stores cover over 20 % of inland consumption the prices charged by them will be taken into consideration.

This information will be published by the Commission each week in the Oil Bulletin in national currencies and in euros. The euro exchange rates taken into consideration will be those established on 31 December 1998 in the case of euro zone countries; in the case of the other States the rates will be those published each Monday at 2.15 p.m. by the European Central Bank.

The information concerning the weekly prices net of duties and taxes will not be published if the Commission departments are closed.

If Monday is a public holiday in a Member State, publication may be postponed until Wednesday at the request of the Member State.
