

MALTA

Date of data collection or reference period	Maximum consumer prices in force are announced through an official press release.
Reporting body	National Statistics Office
Reporting price discounts on motor fuels	No
Market coverage and data sources	Almost full market coverage of the consumer prices of fuels sold at filling stations and by oil companies. Data based on Enemed published prices. Enemed is a major player and to date its prices are considered to be equivalent to market prices in Malta.
Price averages	Arithmetic average
Biofuels	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In terms of the national legislation, specifically the Sixth Schedule to the Petroleum for the Inland Wholesale Fuel Market, Bottling of LPG and Primary Storage Facilities Regulations (S.L.545.17) the minimum biofuel content (%) to be released to the inland market by the importer of petrol MSA EN 228 and, or diesel MSA EN 590 calculated by energy content was 7.5% in 2017 and is 8.5% for 2018. The volume of biodiesel (FAME) should not exceed 7.0% in the diesel blend to be within the EN 590 quality standard of automotive diesel. Note that the term biofuel includes biodiesel(FAME), HVO, etc.</li> <li>• Biofuel components in blends are subject to the same level of excise duties as fossil fuel components. Pure biofuels – e.g. B100 – are subject to the same excise duty as regular automotive diesel.</li> </ul>
Other indirect taxes reported	Not applicable