Title:

Management of CLLD: Division of tasks between authorities and Local Action Groups

Theme:

The different delivery models for community-led local development that are being used under LEADER and the possible implications for multi-funded local development strategies.

Workshop date / time / room:

11 Oct 11h15-13.00 workshop 11A03

Workshop description (max. 100 words):

The LEADER approach has and is being delivered through wide range of delivery models. These have to be compatible with the bottom-up character and have to be able to take into account the individual local needs. A clear division of tasks between the different actors involved in the delivery is crucial for the success of the local development strategies. This workshop will show that good practice in multi-level governance is based on transparency and dialogue between local action groups and managing authorities. Different examples will be highlighted, taking into account the analysis made by the ENRD Focus Groups on "The implementation of the LEADER approach" and on "Better local development strategies". The needs to further develop these implementation models in view of the challenges ahead (multi-funded strategies under CLLD, lead Fund) will also be discussed.
