European Rural Networks' Assembly

LEADER Sub-group

Ensuring results and added value: LAG Self Assessment

John Grieve
ENRD Contact Point

#LeaderCLLD

Brussels – 31 January 2019

Why is self assessment important?

Requirement now: CPR Art 33, 34, 35 & RDR Art 54

For the future: Focusing on LEADER achievement? Informing results based approach

Rust participant perspectives:

Does the LEADER process deliver? 93% Yes

Extent the LEADER process achieves / delivers something extra? Moderately 50% Significantly 37%

Importance of proving LEADER achieves something extra? Moderately 15% Significantly 78%

Are you connected?

WiFi: EC_GUEST
Username: xicb510
Password: Meeting

Go to www.menti.com

Insert the code 995518

Funded by the

Survey Results: Expectations

71% consider to be essential or important

Timeline - Launch of First Self-assessment

Legend:
- Not applicable
- Already done
- It is an ongoing process
- By end 2017
- First half of 2018
- Second half of 2018
- In 2019 or later

Values: 2%, 14%, 18%, 6%, 25%, 23%, 12%

Member State Examples

- Managing Authority – Austria:

  Julian Gschnell (Federal Ministry Sustainability and Tourism)

- LAG – Finland: Marjo Tolvanen, (LAG Sepra)

- Networked approach – France:

  Lucie Paquet (Conseil Régional Ile-de-France), Dorian Spaak (GAL Plateau de Saclay)

Discussion

- The role of Member State delivery chain actors in self-assessment

- Making use of self assessment results to ensure added value

- Making use of self assessment results to inform future policy and delivery

- The importance of supporting LAGs in this work

- Actions to promote / deliver self assessment?

- Actions to follow up from self assessment?

- Who by?

- What are the emerging issues?