

*Our purpose is engage people and the development of rural areas.
“Liv og Land” – “Life and countryside”*

NRN objectives

The Danish Rural Network adopted the four mandatory objectives

- To increase the involvement of stakeholders in the implementation of rural development;
- To improve the quality of implementation of rural development programmes and ensure the best possible use of the funds;
- To inform the public and potential beneficiaries on rural development policy and funding opportunities;
- To foster innovation.

Structure of the NSU

The NSU in Denmark is located on the southern islands of Denmark. The NSU or LAG-secretariat is part of the Danish Business Authority and has the responsibility for the organisation and administration of the policy. The Danish AgriFish Agency monitor and supports the NSU.

The NSU and RDP management

The NSU and the Managing Authority

The NSU is established within the Managing Authority and the Paying Agency with some activities outsourced to another ministerial agency.

The NSU and the Monitoring Committee

The Danish AgriFish Agency is acting as secretariat for both the Monitoring Committee and the Danish Rural Development Network.

Membership

The Danish NRN is open to all relevant organisations and administrations that are involved in rural development. This includes ministries, municipalities, regions, nature- and environment organisations, organisations that work with rural development.

NRN Governance

STEERING GROUP

- A steering group with members from the ministries responsible for the implementation of the RDP is established to coordinate stakeholders and members and enforce the communication, activities and objectives of NRN.
- The steering group will meet at least once a year. In addition at least one thematic meeting is held yearly.

Communication

There will be held one yearly communication meeting in the steering group which will adopt a communication plan for the coming year

NRN Self-Assessment

The Self-Assessment Plan is under development.

Timeline of NRN Workplans

Denmark has an action plan that runs for the whole period 2014-2020.
The steering group will annually adopt an activity and communication plan.
