Accommodation and travel costs

Participants are expected to cover their own accommodation and travel costs.

How to reach the Metropole Hotel:

If you travel by plane to the Brussels National Airport:

- You can take a taxi to the city Centre of Brussels (-/+ 45 €)
- Another possibility is to take the train from the airport. The train station the closest to the Metropole hotel is called: 'Bruxelles Central'.
- from the central station you can, once again, take a taxi (5min) ...
- or you can take the metro (just one stop with line 1 to 'Gare de L'Ouest' or line 2 to 'Erasmus') and get out at 'Brouckere', or you can just reach the hotel by walking (10 – 15 min).

If you travel by plane to the Brussels South Airport (Charleroi):

- You can take a shuttle (busses of L'Elan). These busses leave every 30 min to the train station: 'Gare du Midi' in Brussels. Costs of this ride are €13 per person.
- When arrived at this train station, you can take a taxi (10 min to the hotel)
- or you can take the tram (line 3 to 'Gare du Nord' or line 4 to 'Esplanade'). This will take you around 10 min. The stop where you have to get out is called 'Brouckere' and is situated in front of the hotel.

If you travel by train to Brussels Midi/ Central or Nord:

You can use several public transport to reach the Metropole Hotel:

- Tramway lines: 52, 55, 3 or 4.
- Metro lines: 1 or 2.
- The stop where you have to get out is called 'Brouckere' and is situated in front of the hotel.

When traveling by car:

- You need to follow the signs to 'Brussels City Centre'. The Metropole hotel is situated midway on the road between the train stations: 'Brussels Nord' and 'Brussels Midi'.
