

EPALE

United Kingdom

Become an EPALE UK Ambassador

What is an EPALE UK Ambassador?

Being an EPALE UK Ambassador is easy and can fit simply into your daily routine. EPALE UK Ambassadors actively promote EPALE and advocate the benefits of joining the growing (20,000+) pan-European EPALE community.

Why become an Ambassador?

- Raise your/your organisation's profile within the adult learning sector across Europe, through activity that is relevant to your skills, experience and knowledge
- Grow your networks through linking with other Ambassadors and EPALE users.
- Be part of the largest, multilingual, online community

What is involved?

- Support EPALE UK in promoting the ePlatform through promotional activities such as case studies, press stories, leaflets and social media etc.
- Spread the value and benefits of EPALE within your own organisation, at networking meetings and events.
- Be an active member on the ePlatform by contributing to discussions, sharing content and having your say on articles and news items.
- Keep us up to date with your activities so we can show the impact your contributions have made to EPALE UK.

How we will support you

When you start

- We will hold a training session
- We will send you an EPALE promotional pack to get you started

Ongoing

- You will be kept up to date with our e-bulletins
- You can give feedback and ask us questions in the Ambassadors group on the platform

If you're interested in becoming an EPALE UK Ambassador or have any questions about the role email:

epaleuk@ecorys.com