

ESF Transnational Cooperation Platform Community of Practice on Social Innovation

Workshop on screening tool for scalability

30 April 2021 (online)

AGENDA

Objectives of the event:

The workshop aims for ESF stakeholders to engage with real-world examples of scaling innovations and develop a set of principles for a model call on scaling social innovations.

The proposal of ESF+ Regulation states: "Member States may support the upscaling of innovative approaches tested on a small-scale (social experimentations) developed under the Employment and Social Innovation strand and other Union programmes."

10.15 – 10.30 CET	Technical set-up Participants to log-in through the link 15 minutes before the beginning of the event to test the online tools.

Workshop on screening tool for scalability

30 April 2021 (online)

AGENDA

	Group B, selected participants stay in plenary session to explore: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 'Neighbourhood mothers', Reiner Aster
12.15 – 14.00 CET	Break / Time for 'home-work': Participants (or groups from the same country) make their own selection of a social innovation project not from their country, which they believe has potential to be scaled in their country. Participants are invited to draw on the 27 inspirational examples publication but are free to choose from elsewhere if they wish.
14.00 – 14.45 CET (Plenary session V)	Learning to identify scaling potential Having done the homework in advance based on the draft scaling factors, participants are invited to share their inputs and discuss them.
14.45 – 15.15 CET (Plenary session VI)	Reassessing the scaling factors Participants have the opportunity to share their lessons learnt from the scaling case studies, the individual 'home-work' and what this means for the screening tool. We will further refine screening factors for inclusion in the toolkit on scaling to be produced by the Community of Practice on Social Innovation.
15.15 – 15.30 CET (Plenary session VII)	Wrap-up and conclusions scaling potential Stephen Barnett will outline the next steps for the toolkit and provide sources of inspiration on how to find social innovations with scaling potential.
