

General compliance with definitions from EIL technical guidelines (unit of measure: persons)

30/04/2015

Belgium	Full compliance. Some persons have been recorded as persons subject to an order to leave more than once in the same reference period for 2008-2012.
Bulgaria	Full compliance
Czech Republic	Full compliance
Denmark	Full compliance
Germany	For 2008 and 2009 some persons may have been recorded as refused entry more than once.
Estonia	Full compliance
Ireland	Full compliance
Greece	Some persons have been recorded as persons subject to an order to leave and returned more than once in the same reference year.
Spain	Full compliance
France	Full compliance
Croatia	Metadata survey missing
Italy	Full compliance
Cyprus	Some persons have been recorded more than once in the same reference year.
Latvia	Full compliance
Lithuania	Full compliance
Luxembourg	Some persons have been recorded more than once in the same reference year.
Hungary	Full compliance
Malta	Full compliance
The Netherlands	Full compliance
Austria	Some persons have been recorded more than once in the same reference year in the statistics related to Third Country Nationals who are subject to an obligation to leave (Austria counts the number of obligations to leave, not the persons)
Poland	Some persons may have been recorded more than once in the same reference year (more than 20%). Problem solved for 2010 data on persons subject to an order to leave and persons returned.
Portugal	Full compliance
Romania	Full compliance
Slovenia	Full compliance
Slovakia	Full compliance
Finland	Some persons have been recorded more than once in the same reference year.
Sweden	Full compliance
United Kingdom	Full compliance. Some persons have been recorded more than once in the 2008 and 2009 reference years (in data related to persons found illegally present, subject to an order to leave and persons returned).
Iceland	Metadata survey missing
Liechtenstein	Full compliance
Norway	Full compliance
Switzerland	Full compliance