As required by Article 9 of the Regulation 862/2007, Member States must report to Eurostat on the data sources used, the reasons for the selection of these sources and the effects of the selected data on the quality of the statistics. Member States shall provide it with all the information necessary to evaluate the quality, comparability and completeness of the statistical information. The reference terms for the assessment of quality compliance are provided by Eurostat in the Residence permit statistics technical guidelines General data quality issues Data on Seasonal Workers under Article 26 of Directive 2014/36/EU [insert your text] Data on Intra-Corporate Transfers under Article 24 of Directive 2014/66/EU [insert your text] Data on Students, Researchers, Trainees, Volunteers, Pupils and Au Pairs under Article 38 of Directive (EU) 2016/801 [insert your text]
4. Quality management
4.1. Quality assurance
4.2. Quality management - assessment	4.2.1. Description of the Quality management system at national level No quality management system avaiable. Therefore our answers below are estimations based on experience.

4.2.2. General Quality assessment (Delete non-relevant attributes: Good quality / Sufficient quality / Poor quality)

Topics	Output / Product Quality	Details in case of sufficient quality / Poor quality
Seasonal Workers	Good quality
Intra-Corporate Transfers	Good quality
Students, Researchers, Trainees, Volunteers, Pupils and Au Pairs	Good quality

Good quality (extensive quality) - covers all quality requirements, substantial quality checks are performed and a very good cooperation exists between institutions.

Sufficient quality (acceptable quality) - covers minimum requirements, but issues still exist and more information/validation is needed for a better quality assessment and acceptable cooperation issues exists.

Poor quality (inadequate quality) - the data do not meet the minimum requirements or there is not enough information for quality assessment and important cooperation issues exists.

6. Accuracy and reliability
6.1. Accuracy - overall	6.1.1. Accuracy of the total provided for each dataset

Categories	The interval in which the real population could be comparing with the total provided 100% = high accuracy (total provided reflects the real measured population)	Details
Seasonal Workers	100%
Intra-Corporate Transfers	100%
Students, Researchers, Trainees, Volunteers, Pupils and Au Pairs	100%

6.5. Data revision - policy	Data revision policy at national level
	Due to the delivery date for the statistics provided to Eurostat (about 6 months after the end of the year) no revisions are needed/done. Data is revised before delivery.

8. Coherence and comparability

8.1. Comparability - geographical Definitions applied according to the Residence permits technical guidelines	Provision of data using the Eurostat Residence permits statistics Technical Guidelines and exceptions applied
	Full comparability

Coverage of specific subcategories relate to authorisations for the purpose of Seasonal Work - Issues with the definition applied

8.2. Comparability - over time	Methodological changes between the present reference year and previous year(s). Justification of the important changes in figures reported for the present reference year and previous year(s)
	Revisions for 2019-2021, they will be comparable to 2022 data
Other quality issues	[add any relevant information for the data users here; for example, provide information on the (unusual) trends recorded]
12. Comment	The following classification is used for data availability at Eurostat level: • The term "not applicable" related to the categories of permits which do not exist in national legislation/administrative procedures and therefore such statistics cannot be issued. • The term "not available" relates to categories of data that exist in the national legal/administrative system but cannot be delivered under Residence permits statistics data collection for various reasons (e.g. data cannot exist, data exist but are not collected, data are unreliable, etc.).
