

The member roles in CROS portal as of 26 January 2018

Group member

Member of a group, he can read the private content of his group. He can also add comment if the "Comment setting" is open. Below is what is displayed by clicking on User panel.

Group contributor

Member of a group, he can create, edit private contents in his group. He can delete the private contents he created. He can also add comment if the "Comment setting" is open. Below is what is displayed by clicking on User panel.

Group editor

Member of a group, he can create, edit private contents in his group. He can delete the private contents he created. He can read, edit and delete restricted content created by Group publisher or Group administrator. Restricted contents are only accessible to the Group editor, Group publisher and Group administrator. He can also add comment if the "Comment setting" is open. Below is what is displayed by clicking on User panel.

Group publisher

Member of a group, he can create and edit private, public and restricted contents in his group.

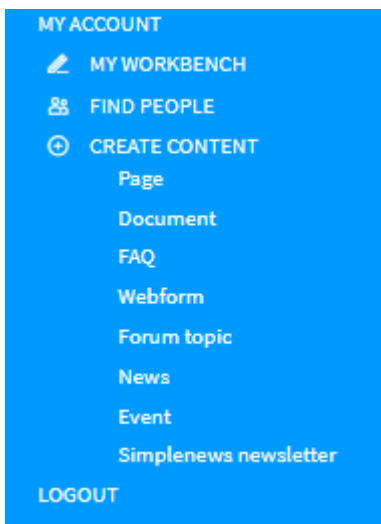

He can modify the visibility of contents i.e. public, private and restricted

He can edit, delete public, private and restricted contents.

He can open/close the "Comment setting".

He can also add/edit and delete comment.

Below is what is displayed by clicking on User panel.

Group administrator (manager of the Group)

Manager of the group, he accepts/rejects the memberships and assigns privileges to members

He can create and edit private, public and restricted contents in his group.

He can modify the visibility of contents i.e. public, private and restricted

He can edit, delete public, private and restricted contents.

He can open/close the "Comment setting".

He can also add/edit and delete comment.

Below is what is displayed by clicking on User panel.

