

Table of Contents

1 - Introduction	3
1.1 Employment growth	5
1.2 Employment rates and EU targets	8
1.3 Unemployment rates	11
2 - The labour market for the 25 to 49-year olds	15
2.1 Preliminary remarks	17
2.1.1 Employment rates	17
2.1.2 Unemployment rates	19
2.1.3 Part-time work	20
2.1.4 Fixed-term contracts	23
2.2 Employment status by type of household and impact of parenthood	26
2.2.1 Household structure	26
2.2.2 Employment status according to the household type	28
2.2.3 Impact of parenthood on employment rates	32
3 - Division of time, participation in paid and unpaid family work	37
3.1 Evolution of weekly working hours	40
3.2 Paid and unpaid working hours	42
3.3 Satisfaction with the work–private life balance	48
4 - Family responsibilities and care services	51
4.1 Childcare services	53
4.1.1 Provision and organisation of childcare services	53
4.1.2 Use of formal childcare services	57
4.1.3 Quality of childcare and early education services	62
4.1.4 Demand for childcare services according to household composition	66
4.1.5 Childcare arrangements other than formal care	67
4.1.6 Labour Force Survey data: a different definition of formal care	71
4.2 Care for persons other than children	73
4.2.1 Demographic developments	73
4.2.2 Family care for elderly and disabled	76

5 - Leave and family responsibilities	83
5.1 Introduction	85
5.2 Maternity / Paternity leave	86
5.2.1 Length of leave and financial benefits	86
5.2.2 Eligibility conditions and job/pension protection	90
5.2.3 Supplementary provisions: Maternity allowances and birth grants	91
5.3 Parental leave	93
5.3.1 Length and benefits	94
5.3.2 Timing and fractionability	95
5.3.3 Employment protection and safeguard of pension rights	96
5.3.4 Take-up of parental leave and influencing factors	97
5.3.5 Mothers' work resumption	101
6 - Working flexibilities	103
6.1 Working time flexibility: pros and cons	106
6.2 Working hours	109
6.2.1 Average length of working time	109
6.2.2 Prevalence of part-time work	110
6.2.3 Children's impact on the length of working time	112
6.3 Non-standard working hours, atypical work	114
6.3.1 Shift work	115
6.3.2 Evening and night work	116
6.3.3 Weekend work	118
6.4 Flexible working arrangements and care responsibilities	120
6.4.1 Working time flexibility	120
6.4.2 Workplace flexibility: working at home or teleworking	126
6.5 Contributions of the employer	129
References	133