

Table of Contents

Table of Contents	3
Introduction	4
Population change and age structure.....	4
The EU-28 population rose by 1.7 million during 2013	4
Net migration as the main driver of population growth in the EU-28	5
Population increased in 15 EU Member States	6
Population ageing continues in the EU-28	8
Population age structure on 1 January 2014	8
Past and current population ageing trends in the EU-28	9
Fertility	11
Just below 1.6 live births per woman in the EU-28 in 2013.....	11
Mean age at childbirth and mean age at birth of the first child are increasing	12
Over 80% of live births in the EU were first and second children in 2013	14
86% of births in the EU-28 in 2013 were to mothers of national citizenship.....	15
Mortality.....	16
Life expectancy is increasing	16
Gains in life expectancy at older ages	19
Falling infant mortality.....	21
Migration and migrant population	22
Immigration to the EU-28 from outside it was 1.7 million in 2013	22
On 1 January 2014 the non-EU-national population of the EU-28 was 19.6 million while the non-EU-born population was 33.5 million	25
Acquisitions of citizenship up by 20% in 2013	28
Asylum.....	31
Number of asylum applicants in the EU-28 jumped to more than 626 000.....	31
More than 185 000 asylum-seekers granted protection.....	33
1 out of 3 persons granted protection in the EU-28 was Syrian	35
Residence permits	36
More than 2.3 million first residence permits issued in the EU-28	36
Ukrainians granted most first residence permits in the EU-28	37
Marriages and divorces.....	39
Fewer marriages, more divorces	39
A rise in births outside marriage	40
Mean age at first marriage increases	41
Implications of demographic change on employment growth.....	43
Introduction	43
Growth potential at EU level	44
Growth potential at Member State level	48
Conclusion	52
References.....	53