

Contents

Foreword	3
Acknowledgements	4
Contact details.....	4
Introduction: The guide to the Guide	7
Why a Guide to statistics in European Commission development cooperation and who should read it?.....	7
V2.1. Justice and crime statistics	10
V2.1.1. Policy applications	10
V2.1.1.1. The criminal justice system.....	10
V2.1.1.2. What these data are used for.....	10
V2.1.1.3. Types of justice and crime statistics.....	11
V2.1.1.4. SDGs and SDG indicators related to justice and crime.....	12
V2.1.2. Sources of data and metadata: data available from international sources	14
V2.1.3. Quality aspects	15
V2.1.4. Key issues in building a system	16
V2.1.5. Data protection	17
V2.2. Living conditions, poverty statistics	23
V2.2.1. Policy applications: what this data is used for	23
V2.2.2. Concepts and definitions	24
V2.2.2.1. Measuring poverty through income and consumption needs.....	25
V2.2.2.2. Measuring living conditions.....	26
V2.2.2.3. Measuring poverty in a multidimensional way.....	26
V2.2.3. Sources of data and metadata	27
V2.2.4. Analysing data quality and identifying problems	28
V2.2.5. Improving living conditions and poverty statistics	29
V2.3 Population and migration statistics	35
V2.3.1. Policy applications: the uses of this data	35
V2.3.2. Concepts, definitions and international requirements	36
V2.3.2.1. Overview.....	36
V2.3.2.2. Data sources.....	36
V2.3.2.3. Demography.....	38
V2.3.2.4. Statistics on international migration and forced migration.....	39
V2.3.3. Data and metadata	42
V2.3.4. Analysing data quality and identifying problems	43
V2.3.5. Improving sector statistics	43
V2.4. Education statistics	49
V2.4.1. Policy applications: what education data is used for	49
V2.4.2. Concepts and definitions	49

V2.4.3. Sources of data	52
V2.4.4. Analysing data quality and identifying problems.....	54
V2.4.5. Improving sector statistics.....	55
V2.5. Health statistics.....	63
V2.5.1. Policy applications: what the data are used for	63
V2.5.2. Concepts and definitions	63
V2.5.2.1 Overview.....	63
V2.5.2.2 Administrative data on health	64
V2.5.2.3 Sample surveys on health.....	65
V2.5.2.4 Consolidation: health information systems.....	66
V2.5.2.5 Health indicators and the SDGs.....	67
V2.5.2.6 Expenditure on health: system of health accounts.....	69
V2.5.3. Sources of data and metadata	72
V2.5.4. Analysing data quality and identifying problems.....	73
V2.5.5. Improving sector statistics.....	74
V2.6. Labour market statistics	78
V2.6.1. What this data is used for	78
V2.6.2. Concepts and definitions	80
V2.6.2.1. Background	80
V2.6.2.2. Concepts and Definitions.....	80
V2.6.2.3. Classifications	83
V2.6.3. Data sources	83
V2.6.3.1. Sources of Labour Statistics.....	83
V2.6.3.2. International Databases.....	87
V2.6.4. Analysing data quality and identifying problems.....	87
V2.6.5. Improving sector statistics.....	89