

Table of contents

Acknowledgements	3
1. Introduction to PRODCOM	9
1.1. Historical background	9
1.2. Purpose of PRODCOM	10
1.3. Summary of EBS regulation	10
1.3.1. Introduction	10
1.3.2. What data are collected?	11
1.3.3. Changes compared with regulations repealed by the EBS regulation	11
1.3.4. Which countries report PRODCOM data?	12
1.3.5. When are data to be collected	12
1.3.6. How are data to be collected?	12
1.3.7. Transmission of results	12
1.4. The PRODCOM classification	12
1.5. Some hints about PRODCOM data	15
1.5.1. What is PRODCOM?	15
1.5.2. PRODCOM information	15
2. Data requirements	17
2.1. The PRODCOM List	17
2.2. Data transmission deadline	17
2.3. Use of approximations and quality requirements	17
2.4. EBS variables on industrial production	18
2.5. Heading Types	19
3. Reporting the production variables	21
3.1. General information	21
3.1.1. Level of detail of the production Variables	21
3.1.2. National coverage	21
3.1.3. The production on own account VS. the production under sub-contracted operations	21
3.2. Reporting of the production variables	22
3.3. Basic examples	23
4. Building a PRODCOM record and data file	27
4.1. SDMX format conversion	27
4.2. The PRODCOM record	28
4.3. The record layout	28

4.4 Description of the fields	30
4.4.1 The Header Section	30
4.4.2 Fields used in the Sold Value, Sold Quantity, Sub-contracted Value, Sub-contracted Quantity and Actual Quantity Sections	30
4.4.3 Use of the p-percent rule	32
4.4.4 The comment fields	32
4.4.5 The Sold Value Section	33
4.4.6. The Sold Quantity Section	33
4.4.7 The Sub-contracted Value Section	34
4.4.8 The Sub-contracted Quantity Section	35
4.4.9 The Actual Quantity Section	35
4.5 Examples	36
4.5.1 Zero production	36
4.5.2 Type S heading	37
4.5.3 Type T heading	38
4.5.4 Type I heading	39
4.5.5 Type V heading	40
4.6 Code lists	41
4.6.1 Reporting countries	41
4.6.2 Monetary units	42
4.6.3 Volume units	43
5. Data transmission and Eurostat's Validation Services	45
5.1 Data transmission - EDAMIS	45
5.1.1 EU Login	46
5.1.2 EDAMIS – access to your statistical domains	46
5.2 Pre-validation/validation services	46
5.2.1 Transmission – detailed activity steps	47
6. Metadata reporting	57
6.1 The Euro-SDMX Metadata Structure	58
6.2 Quality and performance indicators	58
6.3 Changes compared with regulations repealed by the EBS regulation	59
6.4 Publication of the ESMS file	59
7. Dissemination of PRODCOM data	61
7.1 PRODCOM data on Eurostat's website	61
Annexes	63
Annex 1 - Size categories for small, medium and large countries	63