

Glossary: Adjusted household disposable income

Statistics Explained

Gross adjusted household disposable income is the gross household disposable income increased by social transfers in kind from the government and non-profit institutions serving households . Social transfers in kind are provided for free or at prices not economically significant, and include health and educational services, social housing, cultural or sport services.

Related concepts

- Households disposable income
- Household sector

Statistical data

- Quarterly sector accounts - households