

Glossary: Foreign direct investment intensity

Statistics Explained

Foreign direct investment (FDI) intensity is the average of inward and outward FDI flows divided by GDP . The index measures the intensity of investment integration within the international economy.

Further information

- Foreign direct investment (CODED - Concepts and Definitions Database)

Related concepts

- Foreign direct investment

Statistical data

- Foreign direct investment \(in chapter 4\) .