Glossary:Unemployment trap

Statistics Explained

The unemployment trap measures the percentage of gross earnings lost to taxes when a person becomes employed. This occurs through the loss of unemployment benefits combined with higher tax and social security contributions.

Statistical data

- Wages and labour costs