

Glossary:Bank account overdraft

Statistics Explained

A household with a bank account overdraft is a household which at the time of the survey maintains a negative balance on at least one of its bank accounts because of financial difficulties (urgent need of money, output higher than input...). Interest is charged on the amount owed. The bank accounts must not necessarily be current accounts .

Related concepts

- Bank current account

Statistical data

- Living conditions in Europe - income distribution and income inequality