

Glossary:Ozone depleting substance (ODS)

Statistics Explained

An ozone depleting substance , abbreviated as ODS , is a substance contributing to ozone (O₃) depletion in the Earth's atmosphere. These substances are listed in the Montreal Protocol which is designed to phase out their production and consumption.

Further information

- The Montreal Protocol on Substances that Deplete the Ozone Layer - United Nations Environment Programme - Ozone Secretariat

Related concepts

- Acidification gas
- Greenhouse gas \(GHG\)

Statistical data

- Air pollution statistics - air emissions accounts
- Greenhouse gas emission accounts