

Glossary:Metropolitan France

Statistics Explained

Metropolitan France is the part of France (FR) located in Europe, including the island of Corsica. It can also be described as mainland France plus Corsica. The term excludes overseas departments and territories.