

Forest canopy cover , also known as canopy coverage or crown cover, is defined as the proportion of the forest covered by the vertical projection of the tree crowns (Jennings et al. 1999).

Related concepts

- Forest
- Land cover
- Land use/cover area frame statistical survey \(LUCAS\)

Statistical data

- Forests, forestry and logging
- Land use statistics
- LUCAS - Land use and land cover survey

Source

- The Finnish Forest Research Institute \(Metla\)