Competitiveness is a measure of the comparative advantage or disadvantage of enterprises, industries, regions, countries or supranational economies like the European Union (EU) in selling its products in international markets. It refers to the ability to generate relatively high income and employment levels on a sustainable basis while competing internationally.

Related concepts
- Export

Statistical data
- International trade in goods
- International trade in services