

Gross income is the total monetary and non-monetary income of a household over a specified period, before deducting taxes on income or wealth or social security contributions by employers and employees but after including inter-household transfers received.

Related concept

- Earnings

Statistical data

- Living conditions in Europe - income distribution and income inequality