

Glossary: Services trade by enterprise characteristics (STEC)

Statistics Explained

Services trade by enterprise characteristics (STEC) links trade in services statistics to the characteristics of the enterprises that trade in services, by creating new information about classes of enterprises, including firm size and industry, but also ownership (domestic and foreign).

Further information

- International trade in services - dedicated section

Statistical data

- Services trade by enterprise characteristics - STEC