

The Galileo programme is Europe's initiative for a global satellite navigation system, providing an accurate, guaranteed global positioning service under civilian control.

Further information

- European Commission - Growth - Space