*Your data (first name, last name, country of residence, preferred language, email address, age, organisation) will be the responsibility of the European Parliament’s Directorate-General for Communication. If you have consented to allow the European Parliament to contact you for research, we may engage an independent research company to act as a data processor, in order to carry out (anonymised) satisfaction surveys on our behalf.

Only the staff of the European Parliament Directorate-General for Communication and of the data processor have access to your data for the purposes for which they were collected. The European Parliament does not transmit any data to parties outside these recipients. Only in case of audit or judicial procedures the Court of Auditors, the Court of Justice and the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF) would be involved. If you have questions regarding our use of your data, you should first contact the Visitors’ Services Coordination Unit by email to vscu@europarl.europa.eu.

Personal data will be stored no longer than necessary for the purposes for which they were collected. You have the right to access, to rectify and to erase the data concerning you at any time by contacting the Data Controller, or to recourse to the Data Protection Officer of the European Parliament data-protection@ep.europa.eu, or the European Data Protection Supervisor edps@edps.europa.eu
