Thank you for your interest in submitting a research paper for Cedefop's workshop “Human-centred digital transitions and skill mismatches in European workplaces” that will take place physically on 11 and 12 December 2024 in Thessaloniki, Greece.

At this workshop, Cedefop and external experts will present cutting-edge research on the impact of the digital transition on skill mismatches in EU labour markets. Policies to prepare the EU workforce for an artificially intelligent future of work will also be discussed. The workshop will mainly use unique data from Cedefop’s second European skills and jobs survey.

More information about the event may be found on the event website.

Please submit your paper by filling in and submitting the form below. The form is individual and should be filled in only by the interested author.

Deadline for submission: 31 July 2024

A notification of accepted papers to Cedefop’s workshop will be sent by: 16 September 2024

Participation in the event will be by invitation only to a limited number of interested individuals and to authors of accepted papers.

Both papers that use Cedefop’s ESJS2 microdata and papers that use other relevant data sets are welcome to be submitted to the workshop.

Submitted papers should have a length of about 15-30 pages (including bibliography and annexes). They should be structured around the following sections: Introduction, Literature Review, Data, Empirical
Submitted papers may be considered for publication, if authors wish and grant approval, in a special issue of Cedefop’s working paper series (light peer-review), and/or a special issue of the Journal of Education and Work (regular peer-review). These special issues are expected to be published in the second half of 2025.
