Consultation on the reform of the Common Fisheries Policy

1. Objective

The Commission has launched a wide-ranging debate on the way that EU fisheries are managed. The aim is to gather views from all those with an interest in the future of Europe's fisheries: fishermen, fish processors, retailers, environmentalists, consumers, taxpayers – in fact, every EU citizen, on their visions for the future of Europe's fisheries and their ideas on how those visions can become reality. The mosaic of views that will be collected will pave the way for a substantial overhaul of the way that EU fisheries are managed.

2. Who has access to your contribution and to whom is it disclosed?

Received contributions, together with the identity of the contributor, will be published on the Internet, unless the contributor objects to publication of the personal data on the grounds that such publication would harm his or her legitimate interests. In this case the contribution may be published in anonymous form. Otherwise the contribution will not be published nor will, in principle, its content be taken into account.
