

Biography – Lasse Lehtonen

Lasse Lehtonen, M.D., Ph.D., LL.D. is Professor of Health Law in the University of Helsinki and the Administrative Chief Physician in the Helsinki University Hospital.

He is a clinical pharmacologist in his medical training and contributed into many clinical studies in the field of antimicrobial chemotherapy, asthma and heart failure.

His legal studies are mostly in the field of patient's rights, data protection and biomedical law.

His ongoing research activities include evidence-based patient safety practices with specific emphasis on the utilization of information technology in health care.